EATON
Powering Business Worldwide

Eaton's Lighting Division delivers a range of innovative and reliable indoor and outdoor lighting and connected controls solutions, specifically designed to maximize performance, energy efficiency and cost savings. The Lighting business serves customers in the commercial, industrial, retail, institutional, residential, utility and other markets. With connected lighting solutions, Eaton goes beyond controlling light to solve higher complexity problems enabled by sensing and communication capabilities within the light fixture itself.
With innovation you can rely on, and connections you can build on; that's how Eaton makes connections work.
